HISTORY OF AFTERNOON TEA

As customs go, none are more quintessentially English than Afternoon Tea. It's said that Anna Russell, 7th Duchess of Bedford and friend of Queen Victoria, invented the ritual in 1840 to keep at bay that "sinking feeling" between lunch and a late evening meal when she would have a pot of Darjeeling tea, bread, butter and biscuits brought to her quarters.

The Duchess soon began inviting friends to what became a fashionable social pastime among the upper classes. Today, a menu of dainty finger sandwiches, scones and delicate patisserie is based on the traditional combination of sweet and savoury.

Accompanied of course, by plenty of freshly-brewed tea poured into china cups.
